HAVE YOU SEEN US ON YOUR STREETS?

Thanks to a generous donation from our international office, we have been able to both buy and brand a bus that we can use to transport our volunteers to outreaches.

If you see us on your street, come say hello!

ROZANNE BLACKBEARD

OFFICE ADMINISTRATOR

Dear Friends and Partners in Christ,

As we step into the warmth of September, we can feel the breath of summer stirring the air, a gentle reminder that new beginnings are on the horizon. August has been a month of transition, where the crisp winter chill gradually gives way to the promise of brighter, longer days. This change in weather mirrors the transformation we've experienced in our ministry, as we've seen the fruits of our labor begin to bloom.

In this issue, we are blessed to publish a poem from our very own Mervyn Appadu. Let us give thanks for his talent, a gift that inspires us and brings glory to God. His words remind us of the power of creative expression in our mission to reach every heart.

As we reflect on the simplicity of outreach, Evangelist Chili's efforts in mall parking lots come to mind. His work is a beautiful example of how even the most everyday settings can become places where the light of Christ shines brightly. Let us be encouraged by his dedication and remember that every small act of faith can have a profound impact.

Additionally, we lift up Ps. Hebert as he travelled to Spain for the Love Your Neighbour conference. This mission reminds us of the global reach of our calling and the importance of sharing God's love beyond our borders. Let us pray that his work there will bear much fruit.

As the days grow longer and the sun shines brighter, let us be motivated by the warmth of God's love, which fuels our passion for reaching every home in South Africa with the Good News. Just as the changing seasons bring new life to the world around us, may our efforts bring spiritual renewal to the hearts and homes we touch.

Let's embrace this season of transformation with joy and anticipation, knowing that the work we do today will bear fruit in the days to come. Together, with Christ as our guide, we will continue to light the way for others, one home at a time.

Blessings in His Service.

THE BREAD

by Ps Mervyn Appadu

A MILLION HOMES ARE CRYING
FOR CHRIST THE LIVING BREAD
BUT NO-ONE SEEMS TO HEAR THEM AND YET THEY MUST BE FED.

THE PRINTED WORD WILL TELL THEM
OF CHRIST, THE TRUTH, THE WAY
THEN LET US TAKE IT TO THEM
BEFORE THEY PASS AWAY.

WE MAY NOT GO IN PERSON
BUT WE CAN GIVE AND PRAY
OUR LORD SAID WHOSOEVER,
THEN LET US SPEED AWAY.

EVANGELIST Chili

No Soul UNSEEN!

In the bustling spaces of mall parking lots, where life often moves at a hurried pace, Evangelist Chili has found a unique and powerful ministry. Among the rows of parked cars, he meets with parking guards - those who often go unnoticed in the rush of daily life - and shares with them the hope and love of Christ.

It's in these humble encounters that the true heart of evangelism is revealed. No soul goes unseen, no life untouched. Evangelist Chili's work reminds us that the Gospel is not confined to churches or grand gatherings; it thrives in the ordinary, in the places where we might least expect to find it.

As he speaks with these men and women, often weary from long hours of work, he offers them the peace and joy that only Jesus can provide. His ministry is a testament to the truth that every soul is precious in the eyes of God, and that the Good News is for everyone—no matter where they are or what their circumstances might be.

Let us be inspired by Evangelist Chili's dedication and compassion, remembering that our calling is to reach out to all people, in all places. Whether in a crowded mall, a quiet street, or anywhere in between, we are called to be the hands and feet of Christ, bringing His light to every corner of our world.

Ps Hebert Mahuni

Love Your Neighbour Conference Madrid, Spain

Ps. Hebert's ministry extends far beyond our borders, as he travels the globe to strengthen our connections and bring back wisdom that enriches our mission. Most recently, he journeyed to Spain to participate in an EHC Think Tank, where leaders gathered to discuss the Love Your Neighbour initiative—a vital call to action in these times when the world so desperately needs the embrace of Christ's love.

In every trip he undertakes, Ps. Hebert is guided by the Spirit, carrying with him not only our prayers but also the assurance that God is his constant protector. We are reminded of the Lord's promise in Psalm 121:8, "The Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore." Whether crossing oceans or stepping into new cultures, Ps. Hebert travels with the confidence that God watches over his path, safeguarding his steps and bringing him safely back to us.

While Ps. Hebert's travels take him far from home, we also recognize the sacrifice made by his family during his absence. We give thanks for their strength and support, knowing that their faithfulness allows him to pursue this calling. It is through his journeys that our ministry grows, as he builds bridges with fellow believers and returns with fresh insights that help us to serve our communities with greater depth and love.

We are deeply grateful for Ps. Hebert's commitment to this ministry and for the many ways God uses him to advance His kingdom. As he continues to travel and connect with others around the world, let us keep him in our prayers, asking for God's continued protection over him and his family, and for the fruitful outcomes of his work.
